- ## 27. Benchmarks
- 27.1 Lloyds Banking Group may participate in benchmarks as administrator, contributor, or user, or in any combination of these capacities. Benchmarks may be referenced by us for internal purposes or in Products, Services or Transactions which we provide or carry out with you.
- ## 28. Conflicts of Interest
- 28.1 We have a conflicts policy, updated from time- to-time, which sets out how we identify and manage all potential conflicts of interest. Our conflicts policy describes in detail the kinds of circumstances in which conflicts may arise in our different services, including those arising from our day-to-day business activities.
- 28.2 Depending on the exact nature of any such conflicts, we will take action to mitigate the potential impact of the conflict. This may include implementing controls to manage the conflict by controlling or preventing the exchange of information, and/or involve the appropriate segregation of duties. Where appropriate, we will disclose the general nature and/or source of any conflicts prior to undertaking the relevant business or transaction with you. Where we consider the means of preventing or managing conflicts are insufficient, we will disclose that to you.

- 28.3 We have internal systems, controls and procedures that seek to ensure that conflicts of interest are identified and appropriately managed.
- 28.4 A summary of our conflicts policy is available on our Website or from your Lloyds Bank representative. If you require further information about this policy, please contact your Lloyds Bank representative.

- 31.3 Any notice of termination to be provided under these Terms may be provided by agreed electronic means and will not prejudice any rights already accrued or affect any outstanding Transactions entered into before the date on which the notice of termination is received.
- 31.4 Following termination, subject to final discharge of all obligations that you owe to us and to any Associates in connection with any Transactions, Products or Services, our relationship with you will cease.
