Both are wholly owned subsidiaries of Lloyds Banking Group plc. Your contractual counterparty will be Lloyds Bank plc.
- 1.4 Lloyds Bank plc has appointed Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets plc to provide certain services that enable Lloyds Bank to fulfil certain of its obligations to you under these Deposit Terms, subject always to Applicable Regulations. - 1.5 By ‘we’, ‘us’ or ‘our’, we mean Lloyds Bank.
- 1.6 By ‘you’ or ‘your’, we mean you as a person (if you are a sole trader) and your business or legal entity (including companies and partnerships).
- 1.7 It is important that you understand the nature of the risks involved with any of the Deposits that you enter into with us. We will provide you with information on the nature and risks associated with our Deposits.

- 1.9 All communications between you and us and all information and documents from us to you shall be in English unless otherwise required by Applicable Regulations.

- 2.3 If there is any conflict between these Deposit Terms and the Lloyds Bank General Terms of Business then these Deposit Terms shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Part II – Terms and Conditions

9. Your status

- 9.1 Lloyds Bank is subject to various regulatory regimes that require us to consider, in different ways, which products and services are appropriate to each category of client. Our determination of your status under each of these regimes will be communicated to you by letter or electronic means either shortly after or at the same time as you receive these Deposit Terms. That communication will explain the different regimes that apply, how you will be treated in accordance with them, as well as a description of how you may request to be treated differently.
- 9.2 In order to open a Deposit Account with us under these Deposit Terms you must
- Only act in a business non-personal capacity (that is, for the purposes of your trade, business or profession);
 - Satisfy our internal checks and due diligence; and
 - Provide us with details of your Nominated Account, which will be used for the purposes of receiving all funds paid into and for repaying all withdrawals from your Deposit Accounts. You must maintain a Nominated Account for the duration of any Deposit Accounts held with us. Any incorrect details may result in delays in transfers in and out of your Deposit Account
- 9.3 You may be required, from time-to-time, to provide additional or up-to-date information in order to open new Deposits. If this information is not provided within the timeframes we request, you will not be able to continue to open new Deposit Accounts.
- 9.4 The Deposits available under these Deposit Terms are not “payment accounts” within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations 2009. Deposits to and Withdrawals from Deposits are restricted and we do not permit transfers to any third parties other than withdrawals paid to your Nominated Account.
- 9.5 Banking facilities such as overdrafts, payment cards and cheque facilities are not available with the Deposit Accounts under these Deposit Terms.
- 9.6 Lloyds Bank does not provide investment advisory services and neither we nor any Associate will provide you with any tax, legal or investment advice with respect to any product or Service. Please seek your own independent advice in relation to these matters.

- 9.7 Subject to paragraph 9.2 above you will be deemed to have accepted these Deposit Terms upon Account Opening.
- 9.8 Further information is available about certain Deposits as set out in Part III of these Deposit Terms.
- 9.9 Your Nominated Account may be held with us or a third party bank which is acceptable to us.
- 9.10 You may change your Nominated Account at any time prior to the maturity of any balances held in your Deposit Accounts, subject to our agreement, by contacting your Lloyds Bank representative.
- 9.11 We may refuse to open a Deposit Account without giving a reason.
- 9.12 We may also refuse to accept funds into a Deposit Account if we reasonably believe that by doing so we might break a law, regulation, code or other duty that applies to us. We may also refuse to accept funds if we reasonably believe that by doing so we may damage our reputation.
- 9.13 Deposit Accounts that you open may be subject to restrictions on currency and minimum or maximum balances that we may apply at any time without prior notice.
- 9.14 Most of the provisions in these Deposit Terms apply on the same basis to all our customers regardless of size. However if you are not a Banking Customer then there are some differences:
- Cancellation rights do not apply (see paragraph 13 below); and
 - Your liability for Losses as result of Unauthorised Transactions is unlimited (see paragraph 19 below).

10. Joint accounts

- 10.1 We may open a Deposit Account for you in joint names.
- 10.2 If you have a Deposit Account in joint names:
- We can act on the instructions received from any one of the joint account holders; and
 - Any one of the joint account holders may, where permitted, request closure of the joint account, unless we have been made aware of a dispute between you.

11. Transfers in and out of your Deposit Accounts

- 11.1 Funds withdrawn from your Deposit Account may only be transferred from/to your Nominated Account.
- 11.2 We will process a Withdrawal Instruction by the end of Working Day on which it is received, as long as the instruction is received by us before the Cut Off Time. This applies to payments in United States Dollars, Sterling and Euro. Withdrawals in other currencies may have different execution times. Please contact your Lloyds Bank representative for further details.
- 11.3 If we receive (or are deemed to have received) any Withdrawal Instruction:
 - a) After the Cut Off Time on any Working Day; or
 - b) On a day which is not a Working Day.

We will treat that Transfer Instruction to have been received by us on the next Working Day.

- 11.4 We will deem your Withdrawal Instruction or your giving us notice, as consent for any transfer to be made to your Nominated Account. Once you have given your Withdrawal Instruction you cannot revoke it.
- 11.5 Withdrawals from your Deposit Accounts are subject to any limits that we may notify you of at any time.
- 11.6 We may decline any Withdrawal Instruction if:
 - a) There are insufficient funds available in your Deposit Account to fund that Withdrawal;
 - b) There is any dispute over your entitlement to funds in your Deposit Account;
 - c) Any of the terms applicable to the Deposit Account have not been complied with;
 - d) The Withdrawal would be contrary to any of the Deposit Terms of the Deposit Account including any account limits; or
 - e) It would be unlawful or in contravention of any applicable regulations for us to do so.
- 11.7 We will not be responsible for any failure to carry out a Withdrawal Instruction by you where such failure on our part was due to unavoidable, abnormal or unforeseen circumstances or any other matter beyond our control.
- 11.8 You must notify your Lloyds Bank representative immediately if you become aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed withdrawals. Our liability for withdrawal instructions executed by us is set out later in this section.

- 11.9 We may provide you with Secure Procedures for instructing Withdrawals from your Deposit Accounts which may include security features (such as security questions or verification codes which) we will use to confirm the validity of instructions we receive.
- 11.10 Where applicable, we may change our Secure Procedures and where the change does not affect these Deposit Terms and we reasonably consider it to be to your advantage we can do this without telling you in advance.
- 11.11 You must do all that you reasonably can to make sure that nobody else can use the Secure Procedures. If you think that someone else may be able to use, or has used, your Secure Procedures you must advise your Lloyds Bank representative as soon as possible.

12. Confirmations and Statements

- 12.1 Unless otherwise agreed, a confirmation will be sent to you electronically, by email, by post or by fax to the relevant contact address recorded in our systems each time you make a deposit or Withdrawal from your Deposit Account.
- 12.2 We will provide or make statements of account available to you for each Deposit Account (excluding Term Deposits).

- 13.1 We may change any provision in these Deposit Terms where we are obliged to do so by law, regulation, or any codes of practice which apply to us.
 - a) Changes we may make without notice
Where we reasonably believe that a change is to your benefit, we will make the changes without prior notice and the change will be effective immediately. We will notify you of the change as soon as is practicable.
 - b) Changes we may make with notice
Where we reasonably believe that a change is not to your advantage:
 - Call Accounts – we will provide one Working Day's prior notice to you of a change which will be effective on the Working Day after you receive notice.

- Notice Accounts – we will provide fourteen calendar days' notice.
- Term Deposit – these Deposit Terms apply for the duration of the term, subject to the first sentence of paragraph 13.1 above.

14. Changes to Interest Rates

- 14.1 Your Lloyds Bank representative will agree the Interest Rate for your Deposit Account with you. Interest Rates for Call and Notice Accounts will be based on a Reference Rate plus a set Margin. We may also (in our discretion) agree a Managed Rate with you.
- 14.2 The Interest Rate is a gross annual Interest Rate without reference to any deduction or withholding we may be obliged to make by law. We reserve the right to vary arrangements described in this condition if there is a change in the relevant UK tax law.
- 14.3 Where the agreed Interest Rate for your Deposit Account is tracking a Reference Rate, the Reference Rate will be a published market interest rate. Any changes to the Interest Rate resulting from changes to the Reference Rate will be applied on the Working Day when the new rate becomes effective.
- 14.4 Where we reasonably believe that a change in the Margin is not to your advantage:
- Call Account - we will provide you with one Working Days' notice.
 - Notice Account - we will provide you with fourteen calendar days' notice.
 - Term Deposit - we will not change a fixed Interest Rate applicable to any Term Deposit for the term over which we have agreed to keep it fixed.

If you do not accept the change then you need to notify us before the notice period expires and the funds will be returned to you at the end of the notice period.

- 14.5 Where we reasonably believe that a change in the Margin is to your advantage we can make this change immediately without prior notice.
- 14.6 We reserve the right to apply a Reversion Rate where you make a Withdrawal from a Notice Account.
- 14.7 Deposit Accounts can be held in different currencies (including GBP Sterling). Where the relevant Interest Rate for that currency becomes negative we reserve the right to apply a negative rate of interest.

- 14.8 For Call Accounts and Notice Accounts interest will accrue and will be applied daily to the Deposit Account, from the Value Date. For Term Deposits, interest will be applied on the Maturity Date and on each anniversary (if applicable) of the Value Date. You must ensure that the agreed amount of funds is deposited into your Deposit Account on the agreed Value Date. Failure to do so may result in a loss of interest.

15. When YOU can close a Deposit Account

- Call Accounts can be closed at any time without notice.
- Notice Accounts can be closed by giving us notice equal to the relevant notice period.
- Term Deposits cannot be closed until the end of the applicable term.

- ii. You do not need to provide any reason for cancellation. Just give us your notice in writing, by telephone or contact your Lloyds Bank representative.
- iii. On cancellation we will give you all your money back together with interest applied. If you miss the fourteen day deadline you may still close your account in accordance with paragraph 15 of these Deposit Terms.

18. Charges

19. Liability

- 19.1 If you are a Banking Customer you must notify us by telephone or in writing without undue delay and in any event within three months of the date on which funds were debited from your account of any incorrectly executed or any Unauthorised Transactions.
- 19.2 If you are Banking Customer your liability under this paragraph 19.2 will be subject to a limit of £35 per instance of loss due to an Unauthorised Transaction, unless you have acted fraudulently or you have intentionally or with gross negligence failed to:

(B) Use the Secure Procedures in accordance with these terms and conditions; or

(C) Notify us in the agreed manner and without undue delay on becoming aware of the loss, theft, or misappropriation or unauthorised use of the

20. Tax reporting and withholding

20.1 We may be required by legislation or by agreement with tax authorities to report certain information about you and/or your relationship with us:

- a) To the tax authorities in the UK who may pass that information onto the tax authorities in other countries where you may be subject to tax; or
- b) Directly to the tax authorities in other countries.

20.2 If we are required to report information about your Deposit Accounts:

- a) You agree to provide the information requested and that confidentiality rights under applicable data protection, bank secrecy or similar laws will not apply to the information we obtain from you or report in order to comply with our obligations;

- c) We will not be liable for any loss you may suffer as a result of our complying with legislation or agreements relating to taxation issues unless that loss is caused by our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

21. HMRC direct recovery

21.1 HM Revenue & Customs ("HMRC") has statutory powers to recover debts due to it directly from bank and building society accounts. We will be required to respond to their enquiries and requests for information by HMRC in accordance with the Direct Recovery Scheme. We may be required to pay sums out of your Deposit Accounts to HMRC or to a suspense (or similar) account pending the HMRC's decision.

22. Right of Set-Off

22.1 If you owe money to us, we may, without prior notice, use money in all or any of your Deposit Accounts with us to reduce or repay what you owe to us under any other agreement between you and us. If we need to make a currency exchange in order for us to do so, we will use the equivalent amount in the relevant currency.

22.2 We will not use this right where doing so would contravene any law or regulation.

23. Dormant accounts

23.1 We participate in the Unclaimed Assets Scheme established under the Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008.

23.2 Under the scheme, we may transfer balances of dormant accounts to Reclaim Fund Ltd (RFL). RFL is a not-for-profit reclaim fund which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

23.3 If there is no activity on a Deposit Account which is not a Term Deposit for a period of at least 13 months, we reserve the right to make the account dormant and apply additional security procedures as a means of preventing fraud and protecting privacy. We will contact you first to ask whether the account should be kept open. If we do not receive a response within 2 months of contacting you and the account remains inactive we can close the account and return the funds to your Nominated Account.

23.4 When we make a Deposit Account dormant, the funds in the account remain in your beneficial ownership and will continue to attract interest on the same basis as before the Deposit Account was made dormant. Any changes we subsequently make to Interest Rates on Deposit Accounts of the same type will apply to the dormant account and we do not have to notify you personally of this change.

- 23.5 You may contact us at any time if you believe you have funds in a dormant Deposit Account. In the event of a valid claim, we will advise you of the balance of the Deposit Account, the amount of interest that has accrued if any and how you can access the funds.
- 23.6 If we transfer the balance of your account to the unclaimed asset scheme and RFL, you will have against RFL the same right to payment of your balance as you would have had against us if the transfer had never happened. However, we will remain responsible for managing all aspects of the customer relationship with you and for handling all repayment claims (which we will do on behalf of RFL). Therefore, you should continue to contact us in the usual way if you have any queries or complaints in relation to your account or balance.
- 23.7 Both we and RFL participate in the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). The transfer by us to RFL of your balance will not adversely affect any entitlement you have to compensation from the FSCS.

- 24.2 If any provision of these Deposit Terms is found by any court or regulatory or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, then:

No Waiver

- 24.3 A failure or delay by us in exercising any right in respect of these Deposit Terms will not be presumed to operate as a waiver. In addition a single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege will not be presumed to preclude any subsequent or further exercise of that right or of any other right under these Deposit Terms.

Rights of Third Parties

- 24.4 Subject to paragraph 32.4 of the Lloyds Bank General Terms of Business, the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply to these Deposit Terms.
